

Smithsonian Institution

DÍA DE LOS MUERTOS FAMILY FESTIVAL Oct. 29 & 30

NATIONAL MUSEUM OF THE AMERICAN INDIAN
4th Street & Independence Avenue SW, Washington, DC

Watch the live webcasts! <http://americanindian.si.edu/explore/multimedia/webcasts/>

DEMONSTRATIONS:

Potomac Atrium, Ongoing

Learn techniques from award-winning artists Verónica Castillo, Rubén Guzmán, Carmen Lomas Garza, and others.

Virtual reality stations, including “Flight of the Monarch: Return of the Soul” and “The Meaning of the Ofrenda as told by La Catrina.”

ARTIST TALK & BOOKSIGNING: CARMEN LOMAS GARZA

Oct. 29 & 30, 2 pm EST

Rasmuson Theater (doors open at 1:30 pm)

Iconic Mexican American artist shares stories about her work and approach to celebrating Día de los Muertos.

CONCERT: LAS CAFETERAS

Sunday, Oct. 30 only, 3:30 pm EST

Potomac Atrium

Playing Mexican son jarocho with a funky approach, Las Cafeteras fuse tradition with modern rhythms and contemporary storytelling!

THIS FREE FAMILY FESTIVAL IS PRESENTED BY THE SMITHSONIAN LATINO CENTER & THE NATIONAL MUSEUM OF THE AMERICAN INDIAN. ASL INTERPRETERS WILL BE PRESENT FOR TALKS & DEMONSTRATIONS. NEAREST METRO IS L'ENFANT PLAZA.

Generous support for this festival is provided, in part, by Southwest Airlines, Target, Michigan State University's School of Journalism, and federal support from the Latino Initiatives Pool, administered by the Smithsonian Latino Center. For more information call (202) 633-0925 or email woodamanr@si.edu

Southwest