National Museum of American History
National Museum of African American History and Culture
Smithsonian Latino Center

Present

Omar Sosa
Afreecanos Quartet

Omar Sosa continues to explore the African roots of traditional music throughout the Diaspora, using modern jazz harmonies and the latest technology. His new ensemble, Afreecanos Quartet, is on its first United States tour, and features Cuban drummer Julio Barreto, Mozambican electric bassist Childo Tomas, and Senegalese vocalist Mola Sylla. The group fuses the folkloric with the contemporary, the ethnic with the urban—all with a Latin jazz heart.

In Celebration of Jazz Appreciation Month at the Smithsonian

A demonstration-workshop
Tuesday, April 24, 2007 10 -11:30 a.m.
For information, call 202-328-6000 or visit www.thelincolntheatre.org.

Lincoln Theatre
1215 U Street N.W., Washington, D.C.
Metro: U Street-Cardoza Station (Green Line) located directly across the street. Use the 13th Street exit.

Smithsonian Institution

Please call 202-633-3704 or e-mail Mierima@si.edu to confirm the number of students that will be attending.