YOUNG AMBASSADORS PROGRAM

Fostering the next generation of community-conscious Latino Leaders.

2023 APPLICANT GUIDE
The National Museum of the American Latino gratefully acknowledges major and continued program support from Ford Motor Company Fund.
About The Program
The Young Ambassadors Program (YAP) is a national college preparatory and leadership program for graduating high school seniors that fosters the next generation of community-conscious Latino leaders in the arts, sciences, and humanities via the Smithsonian Institution and its resources.
Summer Program Overview

- Participate in a weeklong pre-professional and pre-collegiate seminar in Washington, D.C. at the Smithsonian focusing on Latino perspectives with peers from all over the nation.
- Complete a four-week interdisciplinary internship program at a museum or other cultural institution in one of 18 cities in the United States and Puerto Rico.
- Explore careers in the arts, sciences and humanities and meet Latino Leaders.
- Enhance networking skills and knowledge.
Expenses and Program Stipend

• Participation in the Young Ambassadors Program includes meals and accommodations for the duration of the one-week training seminar, and round-trip travel costs to Washington, D.C.
• Students selected are responsible for all expenses during the four-week internship, including transportation, accommodations, and meals.
  • The National Museum of the American Latino encourages applicants to select internship sites in their local regions or in regions where applicants may be able to stay with family or friends in the area.
• Upon completion of the five-week program, participants will receive a $2,350 program stipend.
• Students that do not complete the training seminar and four-week internship will not receive the program stipend.
Eligibility

• Up to 24 participants are selected through a competitive process, guided by a selection committee.

• To be eligible for the program, you must:
  - Be a high school senior graduating in 2023;
  - Be a U.S. citizen or legal permanent resident of the United States with a valid Social Security Number at the time of application;
  - Have a minimum weighted cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.25 on a 4.0 scale;
  - Be fluent in English;
  - Be enrolled full-time in a degree-seeking program at an accredited college of university (2 or 4 year institution) (enrollment will be verified for Fall 2023);
  - Commit to participate in the one-week training seminar at the Smithsonian Institution and complete a four-week paid summer internship.
Evaluation Criteria

The selection committee is comprised of museum and education professionals. The selection committee evaluates all application materials and submissions based on the following criteria:

1. Excellence in the:
   1. Arts (e.g., film, visual, performing, design);
   2. Sciences (e.g., natural, biological, chemical, planetary);
