

Latino Museum Studies Program

Program Dates:
July 4 - August 15, 2020
Washington, D.C.

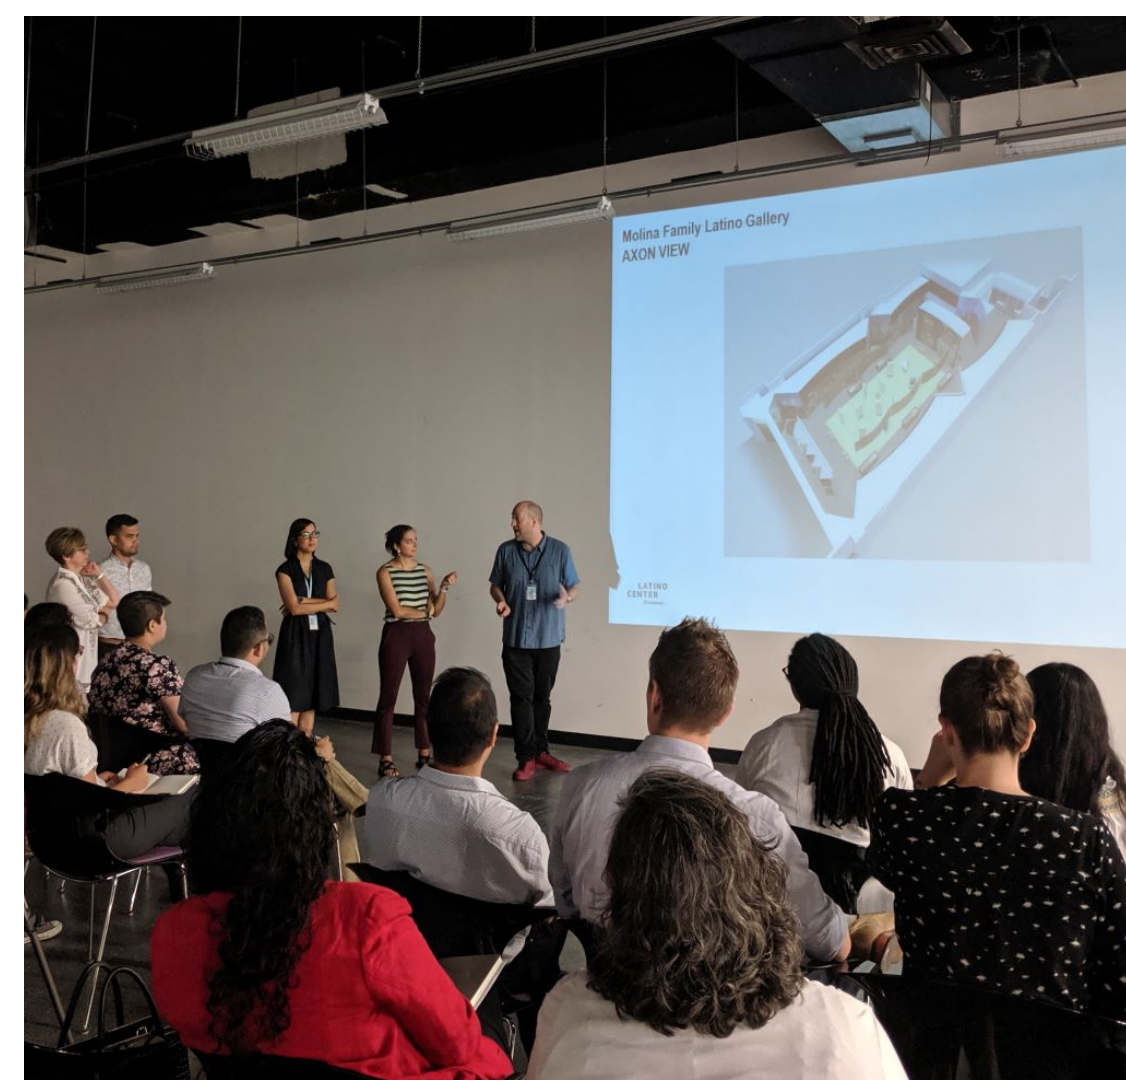

Application Deadline:
Friday, March 13, 2020
at 11:59 pm EDT

Explore and contribute to the interpretation of the U.S. Latino experience at the Smithsonian Institution

Gain first-hand experience in the museum field through a series of lectures led by leading experts, hands-on workshops, behind-the-scenes tours, and a rigorous practicum.

We encourage graduate students in the following or related fields to apply:

- American Studies
- Anthropology
- Art History
- Cultural & Media Studies
- Curatorial Practice
- Digital Humanities
- Ethnic Studies
- Exhibition Design
- Folklore
- Latina/o/x Studies
- Library & Archival Science
- LGBTQ+ & Sexuality Studies
- Museum Studies
- Public History
- Women's & Gender Studies

Fellowship award includes round-trip travel to Washington, D.C. from within the U.S., lodging, and a modest stipend for meals and transportation.

Visit our website for more information
latino.si.edu/lmsp